

The goal of The United States Bicycle Route System is to connect America through a network of numbered interstate bicycle routes.

NATIONAL CORRIDOR PLAN

December 2014

Prioritized Corridors are not routes, but 50-mile wide areas where a route may be developed. These corridors have been assigned route numbers.

Alternate Corridors provide additional consideration for interstate routing. These corridors have not been assigned route numbers but may be prioritized. Corridors may be added or existing corridors shifted as needed.

Established U.S. Bicycle Routes designated by aashto appear as defined lines on the Corridor Map. For specific route information visit www.adventurecycling.org/routes/usbrs.
